BOOK REVIEWS.

All book reviews are by the Editor-in-Chief unless otherwise expressly stated.

Annotated Cases American and English. Containing the Important Cases Selected from the Current American, Canadian and English Reports, Thoroughly Annotated. Editors, William M. McKinney and H. Noyes Greene. Ann. Cas. 1918C Edward Thompson Company, Northport, L. I., New York. Bancroft-Whitney Company, San Francisco, Cal. 1918. Price $5.00.

This volume of Annotated Cases contains a very long and interesting note on "Injunction against Execution Sale," which covers 170 pages, and amounts to what is practically a thorough treatise on the subject. We always find that the annotations in these volumes are thorough, exhaustive and of real interest. On page 1033 the attention of the profession is called to the fact that as to interstate telegrams the rules heretofore prevailing in many states, that a limitation of liability by a telegraph company was invalid, and that damages could be recovered for mental anguish caused by the non-delivery of a telegram are now abrogated. An annotation of particular interest at this time on the subject of "Alien Enemies" is to be found on page 709. On page 347 is a valuable note as to "Resort to Instrument in Aid of Certificate of Acknowledgment Attached Thereto," and an equally valuable note is to be found on page 879 as to "Rights of Parties with Respect to Division Wall in Case of a Conveyance of Part of the Premises." The construction of the "Federal Hours of Service Law" is discussed in a note of some length on page 797, and the question as to "Who Are Laborers or Employees within the Purview of Statute Limiting Hours of Labor," is the subject of a note at page 338. One Virginia case, Western Union Tel. Co. vs. Bolling, 120 Va. 403, is reported with a short annotation.
